

ORQUESTA CHARANGOA

ORQUESTA CHARANGOA is one of the World's most authentic Cuban Dance bands, playing traditional Cuban dance rhythms, including son, mambo, cha-cha-cha, merengue and danzon. A favorite in L.A. salsa dance circles, the group stays true to the tradition featuring flute, violins, piano, double bass, timbales, congas and güiro.

BIO

For over 15 years, Orquesta Charangoa has been a thriving force in Los Angeles' vibrant Latin Music scene. What sets them apart from the rest? Authentic Cuban music: Charanga style.

It all began in 1997 when founder and professional flutist, Fay Roberts, traveled to Cuba to study flute with the legendary Richard Egues of Orquesta Aragon fame. An innovative virtuoso of the Cuban flute style, Richard sent Fay home with enough music and inspiration to start a new Cuban charanga orchestra.

Since then, Orquesta Charangoa has performed in L.A.'s top venues. Audiences and critics alike raved after their performances at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, the Palladium, the Palace and the Conga Room.

The band has shared the stage with such luminaries as Los Van Van, Isreal Lopez Cachao and Nestor Torres.

Television appearances include KCET's "Holiday Celebration", and KTTV's "Good Day L.A.". Charangoa has also performed in many festivals, including the Watts Towers Jazz Festival, The L.A. Salsa Festival, the L.A. Cuban Festival, the Oxnard Salsa Festival, Grand Performances and Dance Downtown at the Music Center.

PRAISE FOR ORQUESTA CHARANGO

"Orquesta Charango is the most authentic and elegant Cuban Charanga group in Southern California."

VENTURA COUNTY STAR

"Favoring a lighter, more elegant sound, Charango is the modern version of a typical Cuban charanga -- a tropical ensemble that combines joyous violins with acrobatic flute solos. The ultimate charanga band was Cuba's Orquesta Aragón. Charango follows its sunny, ever-smiling parameters."

LOS ANGELES TIMES

"At times a churning locomotive, at times sublime, Lo Que Quiero Es Charango has that rare transformative power to create a state of sensory euphoria. This, folks, is a Must Have. Very Highly Recommended."

DESCARGA.COM

"A performance by Fay Roberts and Orquesta Charango is a musical odyssey of chachachás, mambos, boleros, guajiras, and sones montunos. Her self-produced debut CD, Fay Roberts y Su Orquesta Charango, Vol.1, showcases the virtuosity of this wonderful bandleader and her talented group of musicians."

LATIN BEAT MAGAZINE

"All you Charangueros should rejoice because this CD is the BOMB and a must add to your salsa collection. Esa Va!!!!"
